

The Ali Vural Ak Center for Global Islamic Studies
presents

“Education, Administrative Discipline, and the Rise of the Modern State in the Ottoman Empire”

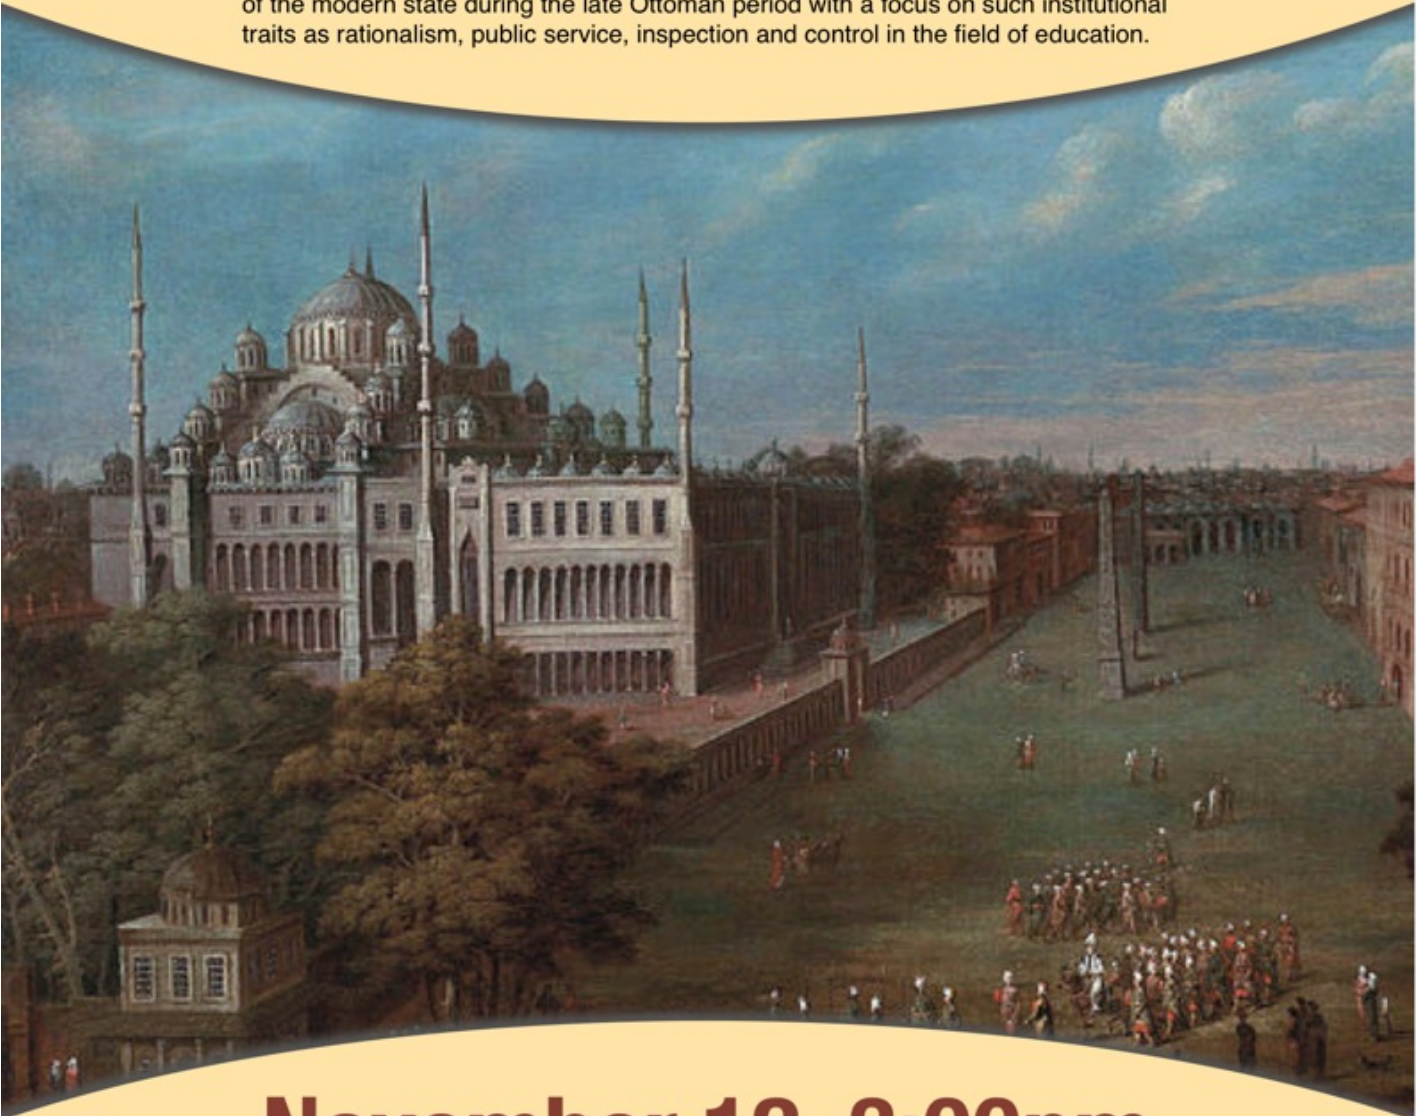

Guest Lecture by

Seyfi Kenan

Marmara University, Istanbul

Dr. Kenan's lecture is based on his current research that investigates the formation of the modern state during the late Ottoman period with a focus on such institutional traits as rationalism, public service, inspection and control in the field of education.

November 12, 3:00pm

Johnson Center 3rd Floor Room D

Questions? Call AVACGIS Program Coordinator, Ezzat Shehadeh: 703-993-5400
islamicstudies.gmu.edu

GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY