

BLACK ICE

Black Ice is Becca FITZPATRICK's first book published since her Hush Hush series. The book has been published in eight countries including Turkey. The plot, as presented in a blurb on the back cover, reads like this: "Britt Pfeiffer has trained to backpack the Teton Range, but she isn't prepared when her ex-boyfriend, who still haunts her every thought, wants to join her. Before Britt can explore her feelings for Calvin, an unexpected blizzard forces her to seek shelter in a remote cabin, accepting the hospitality of its two very handsome occupants — but these men are fugitives, and they take her hostage. In exchange for her life

Britt agrees to guide the men off the mountain. As they set off, Britt knows she must stay alive long enough for Calvin to find her. The task is made even more complicated when Britt finds chilling evidence of a series of murders that have taken place on that very mountain . . . and in uncovering this, she may become the killer's next target. But nothing is as it seems in the mountains, and everyone is keeping secrets, including Mason, one of her kidnappers. His kindness is confusing Britt. Is he an enemy? Or an ally?"

If you read the Hush Hush series and loved it, you will love Black Ice, too. It highlights the best aspects of Becca Fitzpatrick's style. But I would like to add something for those who will read a Fitzpatrick book for the first time. First of all, prepare yourself to be detached from real life and live in the book! She always pulls you into the story. Reading these novels makes you cry, makes you laugh, and makes you excited all at the same time. As usual, she will throw you a curve. You will find a different world in the Teton Range and begin to wonder about the stuff in Britt's back bag. When they are walking in the snow, you will feel the cold. When you are going to the kitchen, you will feel Mason's eyes on you. Be ready to lose yourself in the mystery! I strongly recommend it to all of you!
